

Beat “Blue Monday” and win a R10 000 fuel voucher

Every Monday, from 23 July – 03 December 2018 one lucky motorist, around the country, who fills up with R400 or more, stands the chance to “Add some Happy to their Blue Monday.”

Engen is giving away weekly fuel vouchers valued at R10 000 for the next 20 weeks.

Congratulations to the first Blue Monday winner, Nkosinathi Ganya who received his R10,000 Engen fuel voucher on Saturday, August 03 at Engen De Grendel Motors in Bothasig, Cape Town.

It is easy to enter. When customers fill up with R400 or more, they automatically receive an entry leaflet from an Engen petrol attendant with instructions on how to enter the competition. Customers need to follow the steps and keep their transaction or cashiers slip as proof of purchase.

Brad Bergh, Engen’s Brands, Communication and Advertising Manager says, “As a brand, it is important for Engen to continue offering exciting and innovative promotions where we can engage and interact with our customers.”

“We know that Monday’s can be a struggle, which is why we wanted to remind our customers that the only Blue in their Monday should be Engen.”
