

Beat “Blue Monday” and win a R10 000 fuel voucher

Athol Cooper received a R10,000 Engen fuel voucher on Wednesday, September 05 at Hillside Convenience Centre in Durbanville, Cape Town.

Engen knows that Monday's can be a struggle, which is why they want to remind their customers that the only Blue in their Monday should be Engen.

Every Monday, until 3 December 2018 one lucky motorist, around the country will stand the chance to “Add some Happy to their Blue Monday.”

It is easy to enter. When customers fill up with R400 or more, they automatically receive an entry leaflet from an Engen petrol attendant with instructions on how to enter the competition. Customers need to follow the steps and keep their transaction or cashiers slip as proof of purchase.

"As a brand, it is important for us to continue offering exciting and innovative promotions where we can engage and interact with our customers," says Brad Bergh, Engen's Brands, Communication & Advertising Manager.