

AccTech Systems reaps more global awards

Microsoft has honoured the highest-performing Microsoft Dynamics partners for demonstrating exceptional levels of growth while delivering innovative solutions that have helped their customers drive their businesses forward. This was done during the recognition ceremony at the Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference (WPC) 2014 held in Washington D.C. recently.

AccTech Systems, 2014 Microsoft 'Country Partner of the Year' for South Africa, has now also won the Microsoft Dynamics 'Regional Reseller of the Year' award for Middle East and Africa (MEA) and was named to the 2014 Microsoft Dynamics President's Club.

"Microsoft is proud to congratulate AccTech Systems on being named to this year's Microsoft Dynamics President's Club," says Zoaib Hoosen Managing Director at Microsoft SA. "It has not only demonstrated a high level of product expertise, but also has provided a superior level of service and commitment to our Microsoft Dynamics customers, ultimately contributing to the overall success of Microsoft Dynamics and its customers worldwide."

These partners are recognised for their exceptional overall company performance in delivering valuable solutions to Microsoft Dynamics customers. Microsoft Dynamics President's Club honors high-performing Microsoft Dynamics partners with a commitment to customers reflected in their business success and growth.

Tertius Zitzke, CEO of AccTech Systems, is overwhelmed by these achievements. "Country Partner of the year award was already such an honour, but being named to the Microsoft Dynamics President's Club is above all expectations."

"This is such a prestigious group that represents the top five percent of Microsoft Dynamics partners worldwide. It recognises our achievements of reaching key business milestones while maintaining a constant dedication to high levels of customer satisfaction and an active pursuit of product and technological advancement," he says.

"The Microsoft Dynamics 'Regional Reseller of the Year' award for Middle East and Africa pays testament to our exceptional business performance and service to customers and is an honour for a proudly South African company to receive this award," Zitzke concludes.
