Fastener Fair Russia 2015 – The gateway to the Russian industrial market

New date announced for Fastener Fair Russia 2015

Show organiser Mack Brooks Exhibitions have announced the dates for Fastener Fair Russia 2015 has changed. The dedicated event for the fastener and fixing industry is still taking place in the same week as planned, but the opening date is a day later. The three-day show will now take place from 25 - 27 March 2015. The location for the event remains unchanged – the show will continue to take place at the recently completed ExpoForum in St Petersburg, offering world class facilities for exhibitors and show visitors.

Top firms sign up for Fastener Fair Russia 2015

Taking place in St Petersburg, at the centre of Russia's fastest growing industrial area, Fastener Fair Russia 2015 is an ideal marketplace to renew business partnerships and to embark on new business ventures. The confidence in long-term business opportunities in Russia's industrial manufacturing sector remains positive as national and international companies continue to sign up for Fastener Fair Russia 2015.

The specialised event for the fastener fixing industry provides firms with a unique opportunity to present their products and services to professional trade visitors. The event attracts global distributors, wholesalers, traders, importers, manufacturers, suppliers and engineers, with the addition of selected end-users from the construction, automotive, aerospace and other industry sectors.

Among the international exhibitors at next year's show will be Vilux Viterie from Italy, Nurmak Vida from Turkey and several companies from Taiwan, including Linkwell Industry Co. and Wan Iuan Enterprise Co. Russian firms will have a strong presence too. Well known names on the growing list of exhibitors include fastener retailer Samorezik, leading manufacturer Mashkrepezh and locking systems specialist HEICO; taking part via its local subsidiary.

Fastener Fair – an international success

Fastener Fair Russia is part of the Fastener Fair exhibition brand organised by Mack Brooks Exhibitions. The series of events dedicated to the fastener and fixing industry is held around the world, including India, Mexico, Brazil and Turkey. The German flagship event, held in Stuttgart, features some 800 exhibitors and attracts more than 10,000 visitors.

Companies that are still looking to showcase their products and services and want to take advantage of this gateway to Russia's extensive fasteners and fixings market by booking a stand, should contact the show organisers for more details.
