Superior Erection Announces New Website

A half-century of millwrighting services — and more

CLEVELAND — April 15, 2015 — The Superior Erection Company is pleased to announce the launch of their new website at www.superiorerection.com. The new site allows users to quickly request a quote and offers detailed descriptions of the company's complete scope of services, which include millwrighting, machinery moving, steel erection, plant maintenance, certified rigging and 24/7 emergency services.

Current and potential customers can now research the company's specialty contracting services for dozens of industries. The new site highlights Superior Erection's experience in such varied industries as airlines, automotive and chemical plants as well as power generation, mining, steel and more, with specific examples of work completed in each industry. Further, detailed case studies describing the company's experience in any given industry are available on request.

"Our new website offers a much more comprehensive and detailed description of the work we are proud to have handled for our customers over the years," said Rob Harris, vice president of Superior Erection. "Day to day, we get real busy working with customers — and modernizing our web presence was well overdue. We're excited about the look and feel of the new site, which allows us to more fully describe our services. There is no job too big or too small for us to handle."

Superior Erection, located in Northeast Ohio, has been a trusted resource to businesses across Ohio and surrounding states for more than 50 years. With a keen emphasis on quality, advance planning to maximize efficiency, and job site safety, the company combines reliability, resources and dedicated experience to get the job done right, safely and on time. Whether working alongside contractors/subcontractors or providing stand-alone service, Superior Erection serves its customers with a commitment to professionally and creatively handling challenges and overcoming obstacles for decades.
