

Media Release: New single

Morena The Squire Faith Alive

The incredibly talented television presenter and producer, Morena -The Squire has officially released his much anticipated new single, FAITH ALIVE. Having left our television screens after a decade successful run, The Squire has since been working on his music venture.

It came as a surprise when the whole of South Africa discovered that Morena Sefatsa is more talented than he has let on over the years. After the announcement that he would be leaving television to peruse his music, he has since learned that this isn't an easy industry but he is determined to work hard and show his musical knowledge which shows in his new single Faith Alive, as much as he wouldn't like to classify his music, Morena can admittedly say his musical influences vary from Jazz, Funk, the likes of James Brown, Donny Hathaway and Black Coffee which you will pick up from his sound. Having performed his music for his industry friends The Squire is ready for the county to hear what he has to offer and what other great way to debut his single than on one of South African's biggest music show Club808 which will be accompanied by an awesome performance from The Squire.

“I’m a born entertainer and enjoy singer most of all I live for live performances and I promise Friday 6pm will just be a taste of what’s more to come” said the gifted singer

Catch Club808 this Friday 29th May 2015 @6pm
